

Welcome

Welcome to this edition of the Restaurant 27 Wine List.

Autumn see us begin the switch from white and rose wines enjoyed on balmy Summer evenings to comforting, wholesome reds and heartier dishes more suited to the cooler weather. Two wines that feature in this list suit this season perfectly, the first Ch Brand-Bergere hails from a delightful 18th century Bordeaux estate a short drive from St Emilion. It is the much prized possession of Denis Dalibot, one of the wine trade's true gentlemen. Denis made his money in banking & finance in Paris then left the city, bought and restored Brande-Bergere and is now achieving great things with his wine. Classic Bordeaux in style, this deep coloured blend of Merlot, Cabernet Franc & Cabernet Sauvignon has a fine structure and a delicious, rounded depth of flavour. Similar to but also different from the wines of Bordeaux, are those of Rioja just a short hop away over the Pyrenees. When Phylloxera struck Bordeaux's vineyards many winemakers headed south to Rioja taking their traditional methods with them, but in Northern Spain not only was the climate warmer with less maritime influence but also the indigenous grape varieties (Tempranillo, Garnacha, Graciano & Mazuelo) even when treated in the 'bordeaux fashion' resulted in a wine with similar characteristics but with a very definite Spanish flavour. Beronia Rioja Reserva is a fine example, made in the Bordelaise way and aged for 20 months in Bordeaux style barrels, the resulting wine is quite different from any of it's French cousins. Powerful and full flavoured but in a much softer style, with red fruit rather than black fruit flavours, it is a wine that makes you want to come back for more. Try either of them, I am sure you will not be disappointed.

If you would like to, please ask one of the Front of House team for their recommendations on matching your wine selection to your menu choice. We work together, tasting new dishes against this List to ensure there is always a suggestion available to you if you are unsure, or perhaps just want to try something different.

I hope you enjoy your evening,

Bon Appétit,

Russell Paine

WHITE WINES

BIN		175ml Glass	Bottle
1	Villa Real Macabeo 2015, La Mancha, Spain Dry with a fresh perfumed, rounded-fruit character and balancing acidity.	5.50	19.50
2	Pinot Grigio 2015, Carlo Botter, Sicilia, Italy A fine example of this hugely popular variety, dry with expansive soft fruit and unusually, good length.	5.75	20.00
3	Terre du Soleil Sauvignon 2015, Gascony, France Crisp, zesty wine with fresh lemon-lime flavours, from the heart of Gascony.	6.00	21.00
4	De Wall Young Vines Chenin 2015, Stellenbosch, South Africa South Africa's most popular variety is Chenin Blanc (originally called Steen in Afrikaans) This wine has lovely perfumed flavours and whilst technically dry also has a really rounded mouthfeel.		22.00
5	Le Campuget Grenache/Viognier 2015, Gard, France – Highly Recommended Fresh, rounded flavours with hints of dried herbs and white peach which linger on the palate.		24.00
6	Garganega 'Castelforte' Veronese 2015, Vinea, Veneto, Italy This Garganega has intense aromas of almond blossom, a hint of orange zest and vanilla notes. In the mouth it is full-bodied with ripe fruit, clean, balancing acidity and a long finish.		28.00
7	Pinot Blanc 2014, Dopff au Moulin, Alsace, France Really appealing, dry Pinot Blanc with a distinct mineral intensity and a soft, broad finish.		30.00
8	Nautilus Sauvignon Blanc 2014, Marlborough, New Zealand Fresh, modern-style wine displaying fine elegance and minerality. Talented winemaker Clive Jones is a 23 vintage veteran in Marlborough and in this and his Pinot Noir demonstrates all that experience.	7.75	32.00
9	Chateau Lestrelle Capmartin 2013, Bordeaux, France Fresh, modern Bordeaux Blanc with a soft, creaminess from the Semillon variety allied to subtle Sauvignon flavours.		32.00
10	Grüner Veltliner Prestige 2014, Lenz Moser, Niederösterreich, Austria An intriguing, dry, example of Austria's aromatic signature grape variety grown by one of its leading exponents. Elegant and finely structured, lime green with subtle floral aromas and flavours of pear, citrus and a zippy, mineral acidity.		32.00
11	Albariño 'Deusa Nai' 2013, Marques de Caceres, Rias Baixas, Spain Crisp, fresh, racy dry wine from the Atlantic coast of Southwest Galicia. Indigenous Albariño is one of the least known varieties from Spain but here shows a characteristic intense floral bouquet with stone-fruit and citrus flavours.		33.00
12	Macon-Lugny 'Les Genievres' 2014, Louis Latour, Burgundy, France Super quality Macon, with a soft, broad mid-palate and a delightful, lifting acidity on the finish.		34.00
14	Nautilus Pinot Gris 2014, Marlborough, New Zealand Wonderful aromatic, dry wine that expresses the mineral rich soils of the Awatere Valley vineyard and the intense Marlborough sunshine. The grapes are 100% handpicked and whole bunch pressed with 15% being barrel fermented. Three months' lees stirring gives a creamy rich texture and length to the finish.		36.00
15	Shoreline 2014, Devon, England Finesse and elegance sum up this delicious, fresh, English wine. A blend of Seyval Blanc, Bacchus and a touch of Pinot Noir create a light, refreshing wine with subtle notes of citrus, apple and exotic fruits.		37.50
16	Sancerre 2014, Domaine Bonnard, Loire Valley, France The definitive expression of French Sauvignon Blanc from an excellent family-owned 13ha vineyard at the heart of Sancerre.		39.50
17	Chalkers Crossing Semillon 2011, Hilltops, New South Wales, Australia The cool Hilltops region is renowned for the potential of its wines. This is a fine example, fermented in French oak, aged on its lees for 12 months, a delightful marriage of creamy richness and nuanced high notes.		40.00
18	Chablis 1er Cru 'Montmains' 2012, Domaine Jean Goulley, Burgundy, France A delicious mix of flowers, toast and citrus fruits with a mineral quality so typical of the Montmains vineyard.		45.00
19	Urban Riesling 2014, Nik Weis, Mosel, Germany Sophisticated wine with a delicious rich mouthfeel and delicious acidity that gives length and balance to the finish.		46.50
20	Meursault-Blagny Premier Cru 2011, Louis Latour, Burgundy, France Pale gold with lifted aromas of almond and honey and a creamy, delicate oak palate. A classic.		73.00

ROSE

29	Bollinger Special Cuvee nv, Champagne Bollinger, Aÿ, Champagne One of the great non-vintage cuvees and a sheer delight. 60% Pinot Noir, 25% Chardonnay and 15% Pinot Meunier 85% of which comes from Grand and Premier Cru vineyards produce aromas of toasted bread, apple compote and peaches. The wine has remarkable structure and length, beautiful aromatic complexity with notes of pear, brioche and stone fruit on the finish.		85.00
30	Laurent Perrier Brut Rose nv, Champagne Famous for its highly expressive bouquet and fresh red fruit flavours, LP Brut Rose has for many become the benchmark for all Rose champagne. Full of the aromatic richness of Pinot Noir, this makes a wonderful aperitif or partner to red fruit desserts.		95.00

PUDDING WINES

		125ml Glass	Bottle
34	Chateau de Juge 2009, Cadillac, Bordeaux, France – 37.5cl With a tiny production of just a few thousand bottles annually, this 90% Semillon, 10% Sauvignon, botrytis-affected wine is luscious and aromatic with fresh pear/peach fruit and is made in a more easy-drinking style than the wines of neighbouring Sauternes or Loupiac.	6.50	21.00
35	Essensia California Orange Muscat 2014, Andrew Quady, California – 37.5cl Lifted Orange Muscat aromatics, freshly cut citrus blossom and interwoven tropical notes. Andrew Quady only makes Dessert Wines and has a worldwide following. We know why!	8.50	28.50
36	Elysium California Black Muscat 2014, Andrew Quady, California – 37.5cl Our second selection from Andrew Quady. Rich and intense lychee and rose aromas, a bright magenta colour and a gorgeous sweet palate from the black skinned variety, Muscat Hamburg.	8.50	28.50
37	Lyme Bay Traditional Mead, Devon, England One of the oldest drinks in the world, Mead is a tremendously versatile partner to cheese, savoury dishes and of course, puddings. Taste history and delight in this complex, honeyed, delicately sweet English tippie.	6.00	25.00
38	Recioto della Valpolicella 2011, Villa Vinea, Veneto, Italy – 50cl Handpicked, fully ripe Valpolicella grapes are left to dry over the winter before being pressed, fermented and then aged in oak barrels for 18 months. The result, a sweet and full-bodied red dessert wine with black cherry flavours and a clean acidity to the finish.	10.00	45.00
39	Chateau de Suduiraut 2008, 1 st Growth Sauternes, France – 37.5cl A fine example of the craft of winemaking. Stringent selection and extremely low yields render a full-bodied, elegant wine with almonds, spice, honey and crystallised fruits flavours and a beautiful balance.		68.00
